

Possessive Adjectives And Pronouns

ADJECTIVES (Determiners)	PRONOUNS
my	mine
your	yours
his	his
her	hers
its	its
our	ours
your	yours
their	theirs
This is my bag. The Possessive Adjectives are followed by the noun we are referring to.	This bag is mine. The Possessive Pronouns are not followed by the noun. It is mentioned before or even omitted (we already know what/whom it refers to).

Insert POSSESSIVE ADJECTIVES or PRONOUNS in the spaces.

- Is this pen _____, Judy? – No, it is not _____.
- Are these _____ children, Mrs Smith?
– Only these two are _____; the girl is Mrs Thomson's.
- Jim, Liz! Is that your dog in my garden?
– No, it is not _____ dog; _____ is in the kitchen.
- Paul and Jane are here. That's _____ car.
– Are you sure that car is _____?
- Paul doesn't like my friends and I don't like _____.
- Are those Jane's books?
– No, _____ books are over there, on that desk.
- My sister has got a bike. You can use _____, if you haven't got one.
- _____ computer doesn't work. Ask Mandy if we can use _____.

